

Repression & Resistance:

Inside and Outside the Academy

Thursday, November 12, 2020
12:30PM – 2:30PM (EST)
Zoom Webinar

This webinar will feature a keynote presentation by Professor Judith Butler, whose talk titled, "The Human of Human Rights" will focus on the shutting down of gender studies programs globally and how this connects to the issue of human rights. Butler's talk will be followed by a discussion among endangered exiled scholars hosted by the New University in Exile Consortium who will speak about the the rise of authoritarianism and anti-intellectualism in their countries.

JUDITH BUTLER

Maxine Elliot Professor of Comparative Literature
University Of California,
Berkeley

The Human of Human Rights

AYSEN CANDAS

Visiting Professor,
Roosevelt House
Hunter College

When Resistance is Not Enough

TENG BIAO

Grove Human Rights
Scholar
Hunter College

Is Resistance Possible
in China's High-Tech Totalitarianism?

GAUDÊNCIO FIDELIS

University in Exile
Fellow
The New School

The Truth of an Exhibition: Queermuseum against Fascist Politics in Brazil